Mrs. Mildred G. Brodnax,
Route 2, Box 145,
Eutaw, Ala. 35462.

Dear Mrs. B.

This short letter is to acknowledge your recent letter, with enclosure of check for $50.00. Many thanks, and be assured that every penny of it will be expended to enlarge your family horizon.

I have made progress. I drove to Storrington, visited a cemetery at Latimer, and another at Cataragui. I found references to your families. I also made contact with three of your off cousins. One of them, Mrs Beatrice (Traves) Caird, took your address and promised to write to you. Between them, we enlarged your ancestry by two generations. I shall be sending more from time to time off this phase.

I do want to report that I have written to our Dominion Archives in Ottawa, for copies of petitions of at least seven of your very early ancestors. These will be slow in coming, perhaps a month, but they are very revealing, and will supply a background.

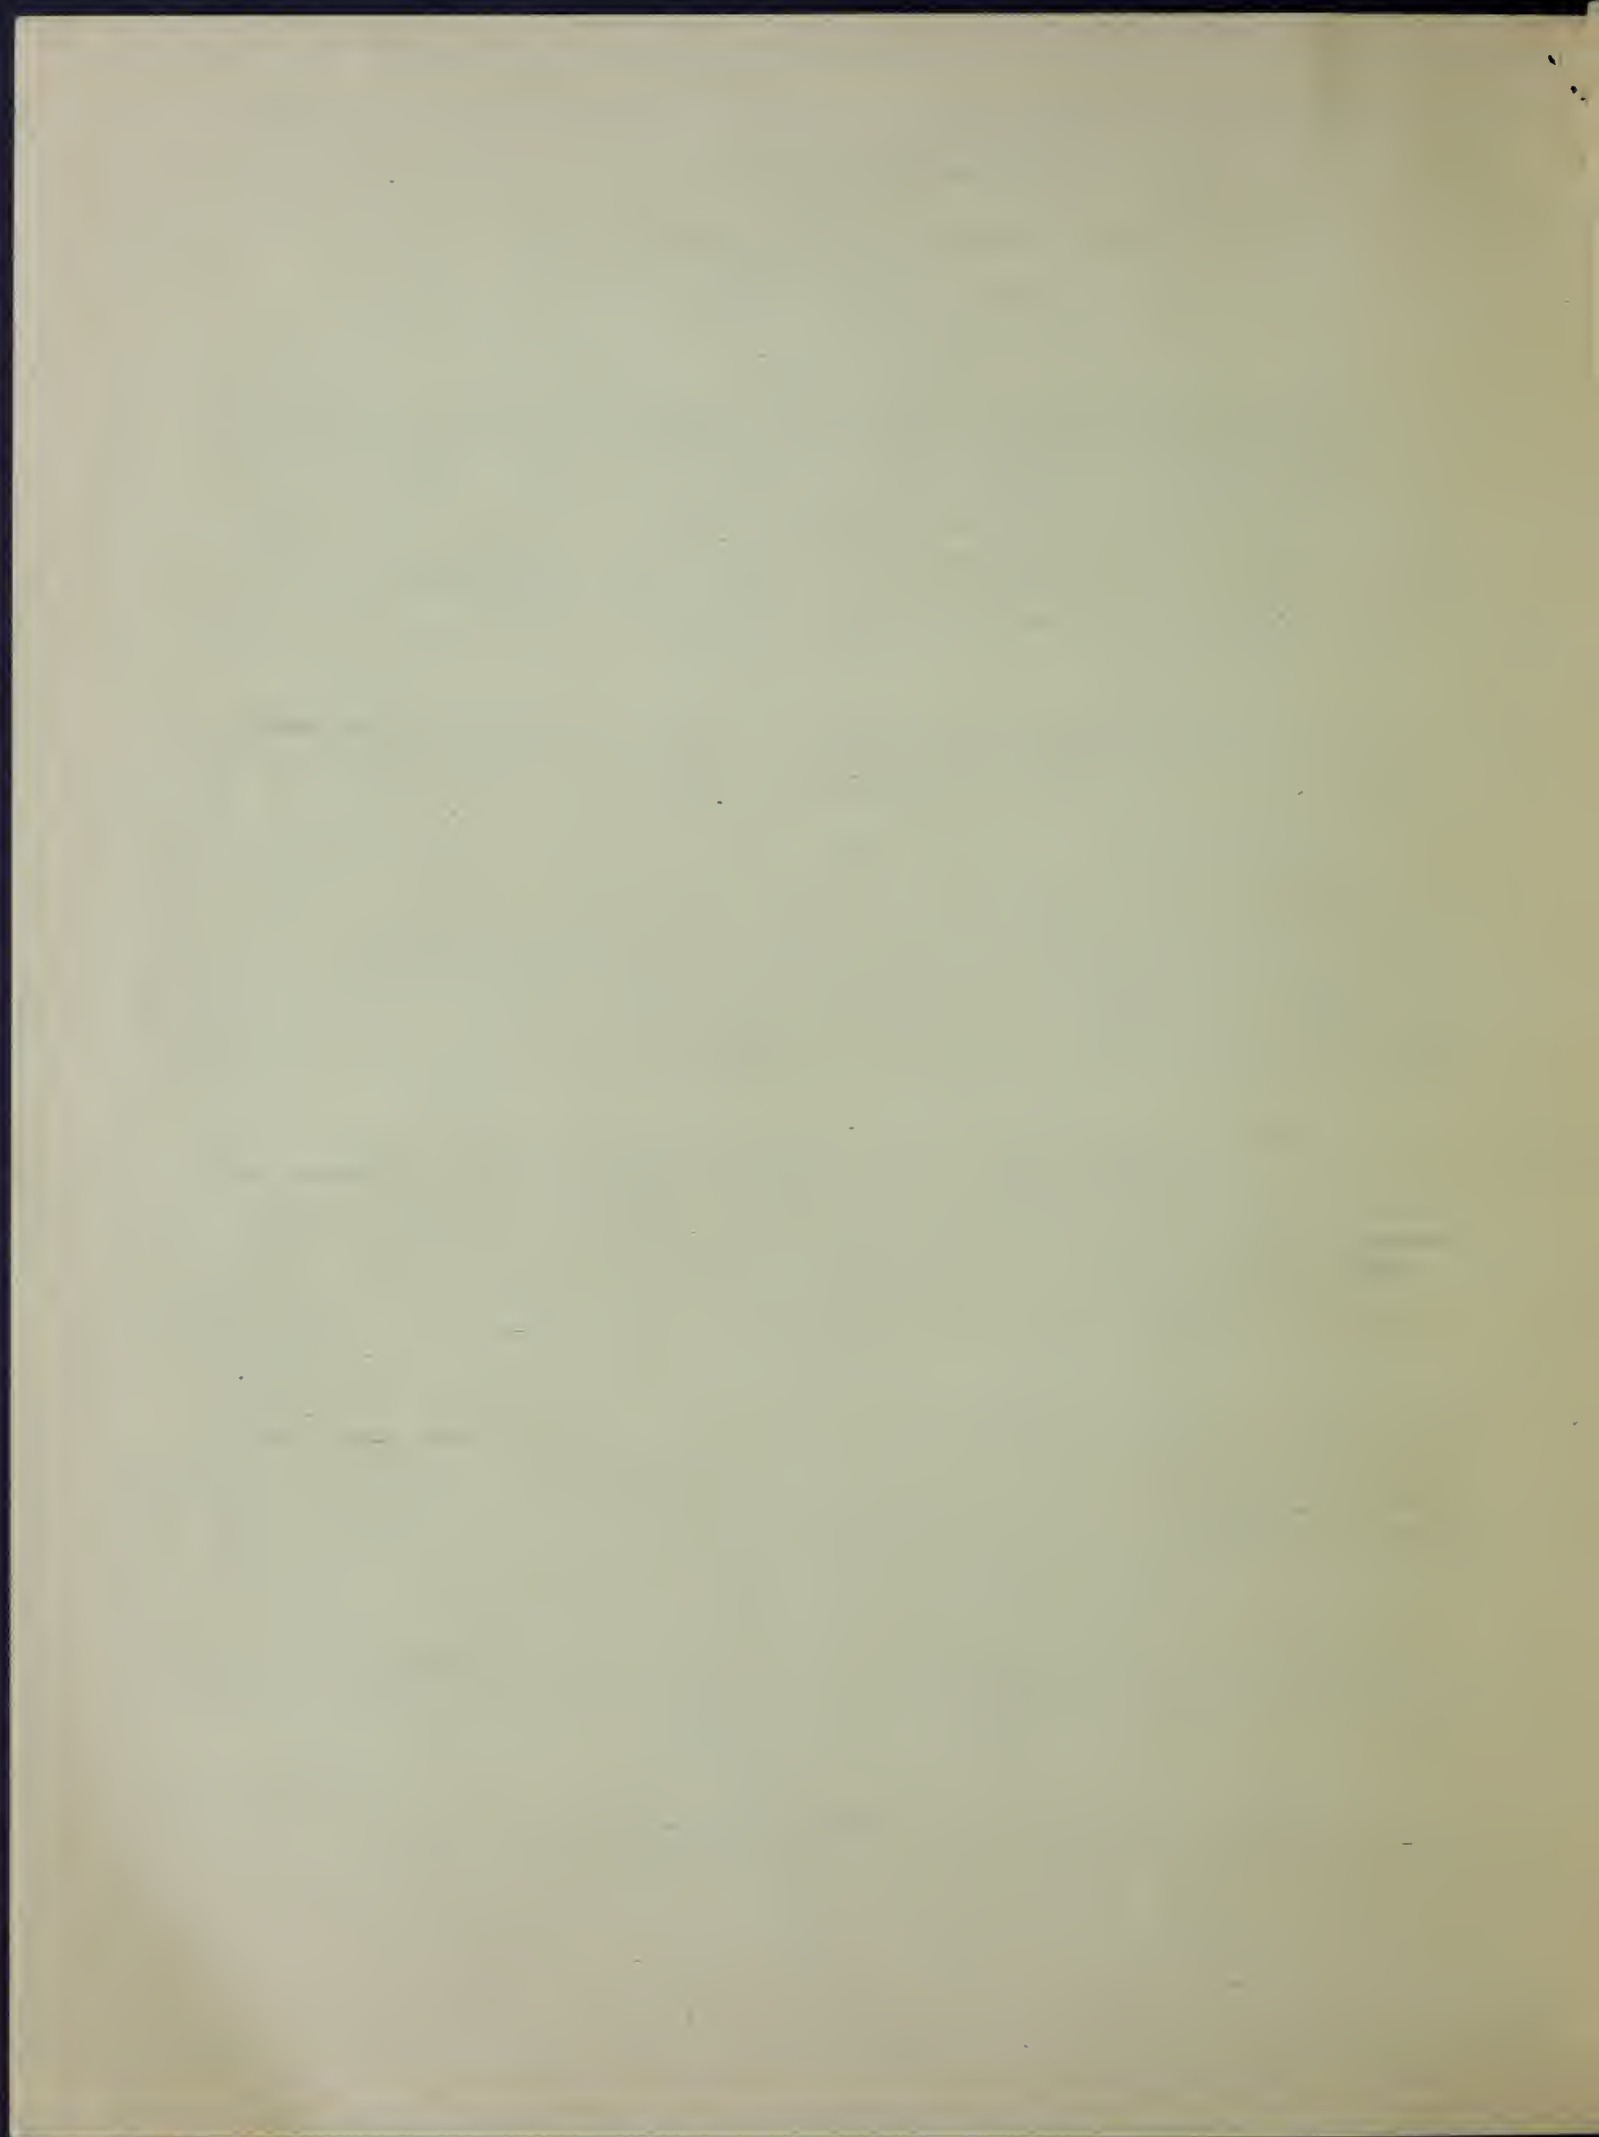

Another surprise was when I looked in the Census of New York State in 1790, of which I have a copy. Here I found in the Town of New Marlborough, Ulster County, these names ---Caverly, Hughson, Bond, and Bloemer---all of which are in your background, and all of which settled in Storrington, 1734 to 1820. Without the least doubt, this is where these families came from to Canada.

I am enclosing a short article on the Caverlys, which had been written by Beatrice (Traves) Caird. I added to it a chart, showing their relationship to you. I hope you can decipher it.

More to come as time moves on. I wanted you to have this brief report.

Sincerely,

The CAVERLYS.

Latimer: Past and Present. 1787 - 1966

Helen Arthur.

Nathaniel Caverly (1767-1850) and his wife Lydia Bloemer came to Canada from New York State after the American Revolution as United Empire Loyalists. They were given three pieces of land in what is now the 7th Concession of Storrington. The part that became the homestead is part of lot twenty-four and is now owned by Mr. Frank Darling. The second farm is known as the Leatherland Farm and was bought in 1905 by George Leatherland and his wife Sarah Caverly, who was a great grand-daughter of Nathaniel Caverly. The third area was the north portions of Lots 26, 27th and 28th. This became the property of Nathaniel's daughter Mary who became Mrs. Wolfe.

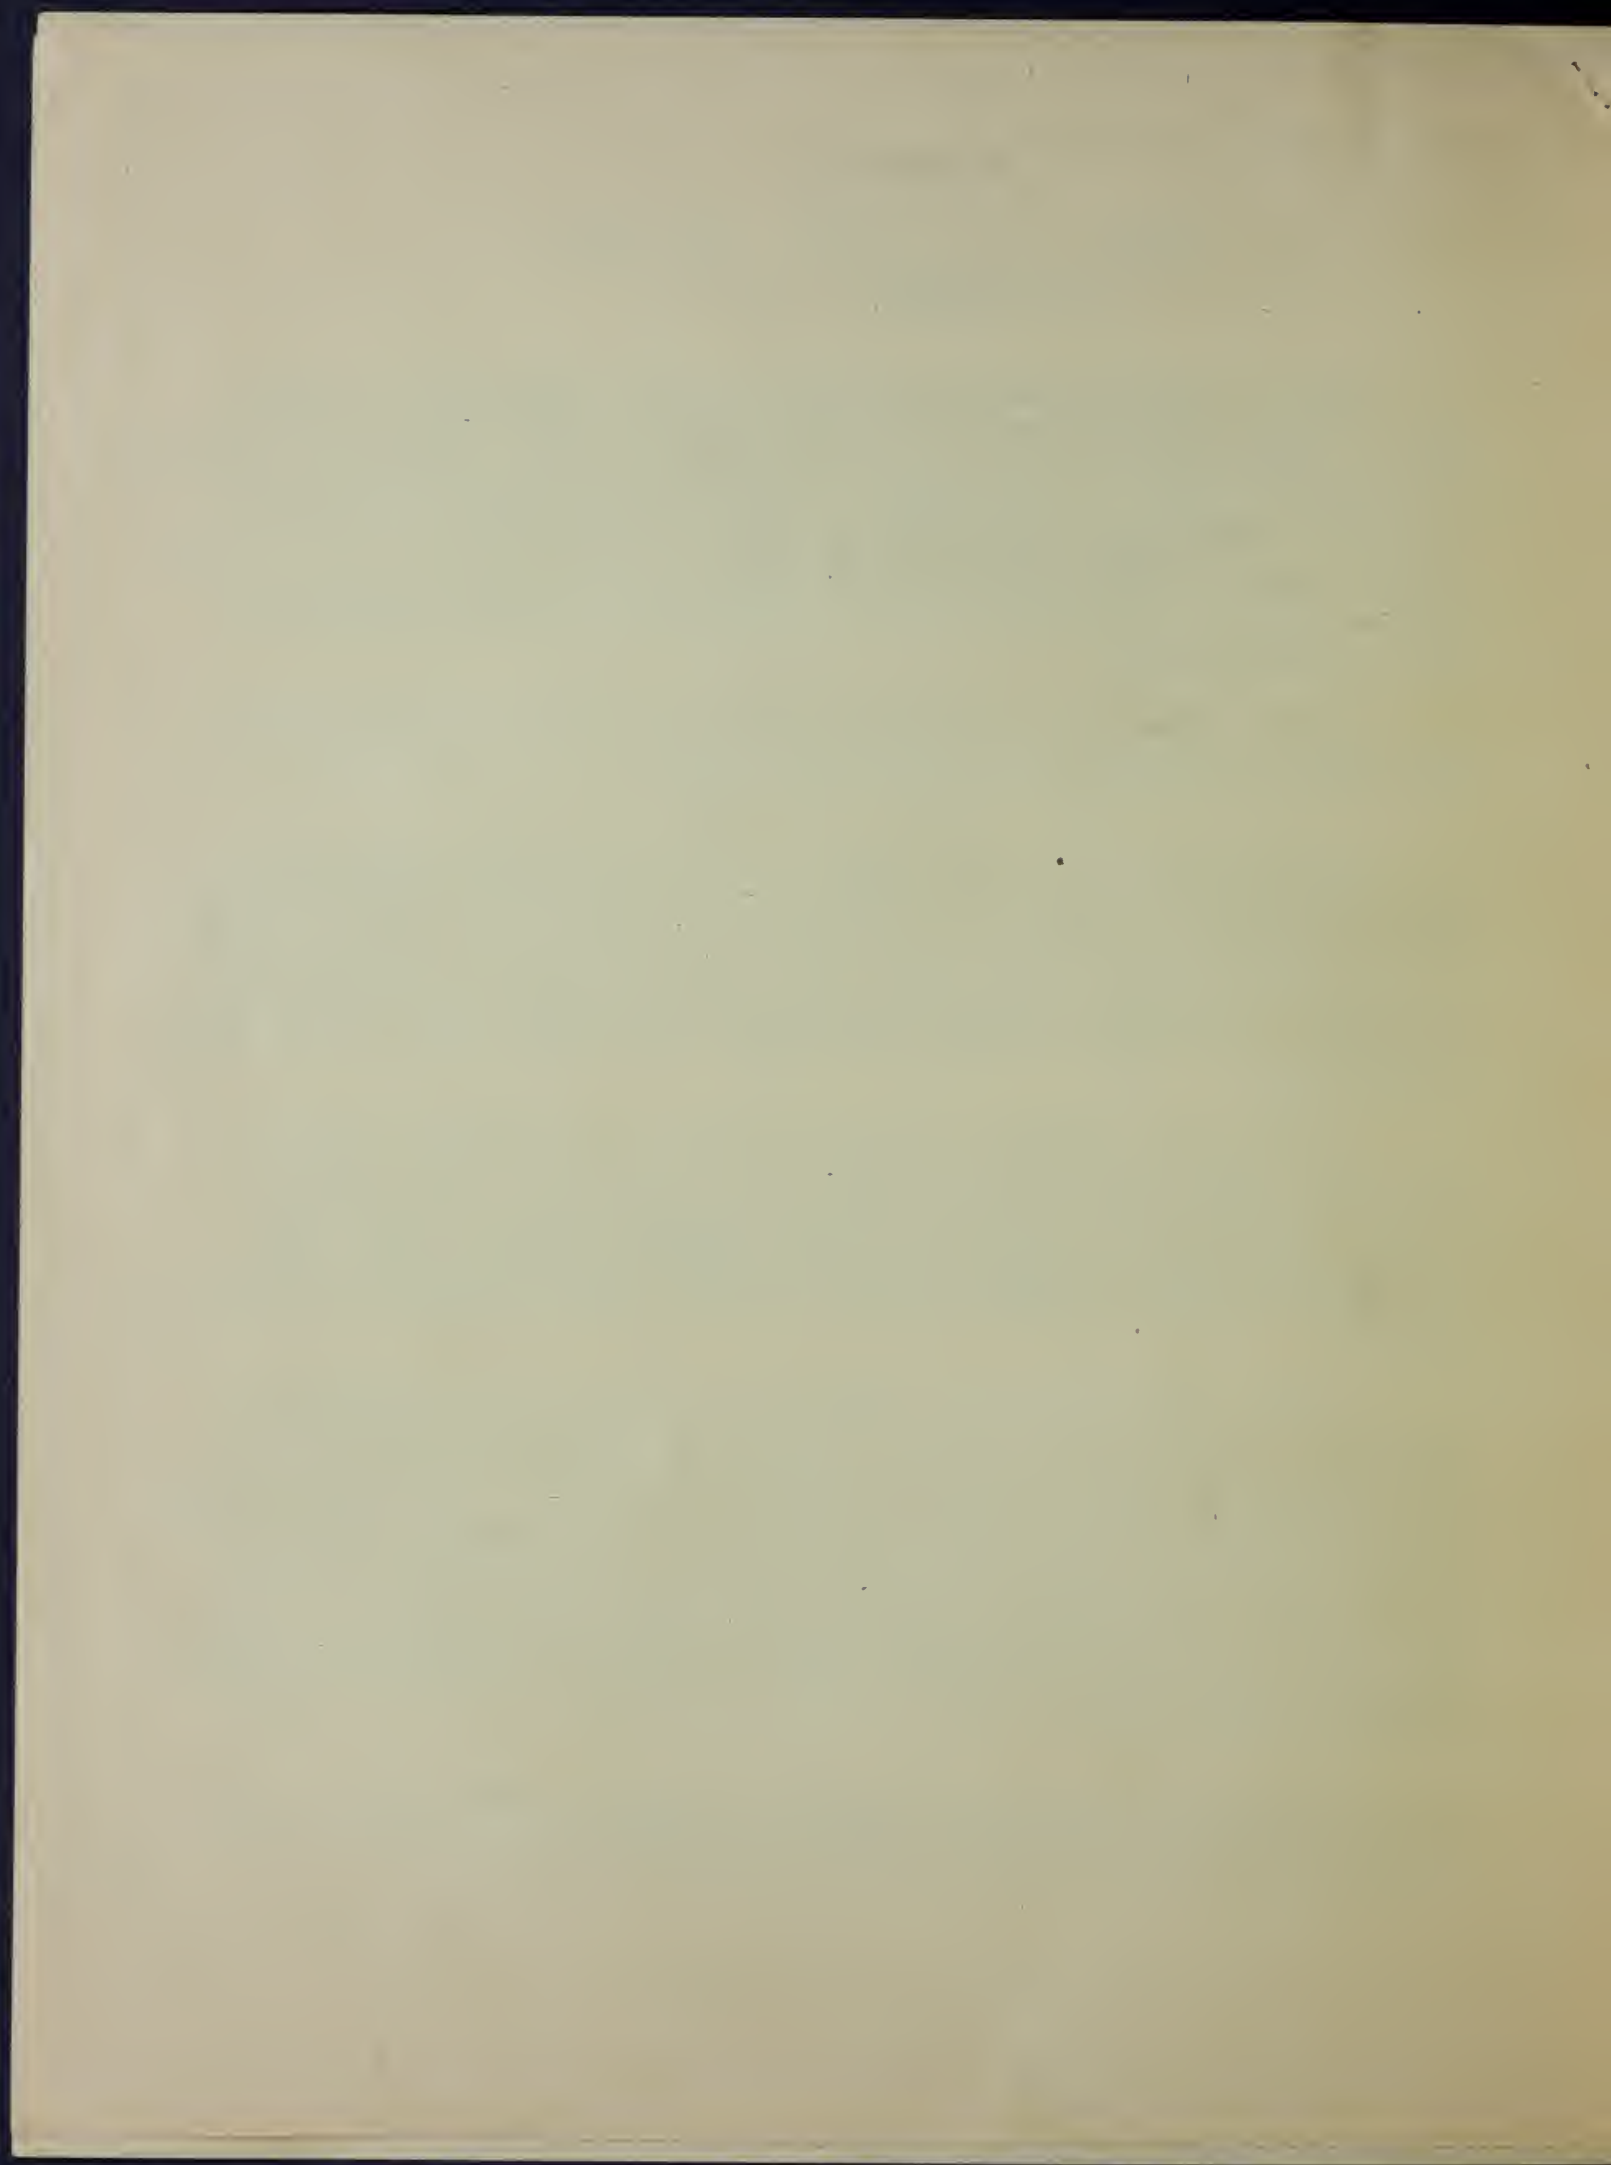

Nathaniel Caverly was a blacksmith by trade. His shop stood just north of the bridge over the little creek that runs through the farm. During the War of 1812, he was a store-keeper in the Canadian Army.

The homestead has had three houses. The first was log and stood just west of the present barn. When I was a child, the flat stones of the foundation was my favourite place to skip. The second house was located at the turn in the road and the beautiful old Carolina Poplar tree that stood for over a hundred years was planted to shade the front door. This house was occupied by William, son of Nathaniel and his wife, Margaret Horning, and their family of two sons, and six daughters. He was known throughout the country as Red Billy because of the colour of his hair.

He and his elder son also called William had the present house built in 1861 from limestone quarried on the farm.. William married Phoebe Wright. They had four daughters but no sons to carry on the name. When he died in 1889, Michael Traves, who had married the eldest daughter, Margaret Amarilla took over the farm. Emma, the second youngest daughter continued to live in this home until her death in 1915. Ella, the youngest daughter married Thomas Thorpe in 1916.

The second farm was given to Nathaniel's second son John whose wife was Catharine Buck, and a stone house was built on the point of land between the Perth Road and the road known to the residents of the district as the boundary. Some of the stones from this house are still to be seen in a small building near the original site. Later a frame house was built south of the stone house and a stone house was built across the Perth Road for a son John and his wife Petsy Hughson. The frame house was bought in 1893 by George Leatherland and in 1905 he purchased the farm and stone house from Ezra, son of John Caverly, and moved there with his wife and two children Effie and William. My grandfather's brother, Nathaniel, lived in Latimer until he moved to Inverary, where he ran a General Store for many years.

The following is a poem written by my elder sister Luella Stagg of Calgary about our childhoods home. When in Ontario she always liked to drive past the place of our birth and reminisce about the happy times spent there

Today I passed my childhood home
 Foursquare it stands of grey limestone
 Built by my forbearers for their own

D. P.'s they came, a loyal band
 To make a home in this stern land
 Their fields and houses in a rebel hand

A conestoga held their goods and gear
 A clock so tall, a cradle dear,
 Garden seeds gathered with a tear.

A gracious garden her memory weaves
 Will flowers from home and threes and leaves
 Give comfort to her heart that grieves?

It is worth noting that these connected names of ancestry of this line (Gould) are found in one town in Ulster County, namely:

Bloomer, Hughson, and Caverly, are likewise found in the Loughborough - Stonington - Kingston area some 20-50 years later in time.

Frank, born September 22, 1847; married Jennie Manley, born 1853, in Carlton; she died May 28, 1898, in Albion. He followed farming all his active life on the old homestead, and now lives a retired life in Albion. He is a Democrat and a Universalist. 10. Annie L., born June 27, 1850; married F. W. Newerson.

(II) Charles L., son of William R. Bassett, was born in Kendall, New York, June 20, 1830, died at La Porte, Indiana, June 24, 1907. He was educated in the public schools of Kendall, and remained with his father engaged in farming until his marriage. He then bought a small farm which he cultivated for a short time, then sold and went west. He was a resident of Chicago, Illinois, until 1877, then located at La Porte, Indiana, engaged in farming. Later he was employed in the drug business in La Porte, which he followed until his death. He was a Democrat in politics, and a Universalist in religious faith. He married, December 22, 1859, Laura J. Clark, born July 11, 1839, died May 18, 1911, daughter of William L. and Cornelia C. (Stewart) Clark, of Kendall. She was a member of the Universalist church of Chicago, and a helpful, liberal worker among the poor. Children: Blanche, born January 21, 1861, died December 28, 1899; William L., of whom further.

(III) William L., only son of Charles L. Bassett, was born in Kendall, New York, September 6, 1865. He was educated in the public school and at La Porte Business College. On completing his school years he went west, and for a time was engaged in the lumber business in Kansas. He returned to La Porte and for a few years was in charge of a farm there. He again went west and was engaged in the lumber business at Hutchinson, Kansas, then again to La Porte, then Butte, Montana, then Bedford, Indiana, then was for a number of years in Ohio. He finally returned to his native state, where he cultivated a large farm in Orleans county. He is a Democrat in politics and unmarried.

This family is found in early day under the spellings Caverly, Caverlee and Caverly. They settled first in Massachusetts, then in Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont. The Cattaugus county family descend from Moses Caverly, of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, a son of Philip Caverly, the emigrant, who after a few years in Massachusetts settled in New Hampshire.

(I) Moses, son of Philip Caverly, was born in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. He married, June 30, 1715, Margaret Cotton.

(II) Moses (2), son of Moses (1) Caverly, was born 1719, died March 1, 1798. He married, 1742, Hannah Johnson.

(IV) Philip (2), son of Moses (2) Caverly, was born March 17, 1745, died April 1, 1817. He settled in Ulster county, New York, and served in the war of the revolution in the Fourth Regiment, Ulster county militia (Land Force) rights. He married, 1770, Bridget Fendegast, born February 24, 1747.

(V) Philip (3), son of Philip (2) Caverly, was a farmer of Milton, Ulster county, New York, where he lived for many years. Later he removed to Canada, where he owned a farm of two hundred acres. He married ——— Clark and had ten children.

(VI) Moses Clark, son of Philip (3) Caverly, was born 1804, died in Sterling, Ontario, Canada, 1886. He learned the trade of carriage builder, at which he worked all his active years. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He was a noted musician locally; he possessed an unusually fine voice, led the church choir for many years, and each winter conducted a "singing school." He was also a farmer, and a prosperous, highly esteemed man. He married Sabrina Van Valkenburg, of Keusslaer county, New York. Children: i. Sarah, married Charles Wall; children: i. Inez, married John Shroeds; ii. Augusta, married Basil Robinson; child Basil; (2) iii. Grace, married Harry Sanford; iv.

Dear Mrs. Frednax:

I am at long last replying to your last letter, and reporting on my trip to Albany.

To your query re the two Catharines, I add this chart:

George Buck, Sr, marr. -----

George Buck, Jr. marr. Hannah Snook Catharine Buck marr. John Horning she drew 200
acres in 1808

David Hughston marr. 31 Jul, 1814 Catharine Buck (Red) Wm. Caverly marr. Marg't
Horning

George Hughston married, Second wife Liddy Caverly

My trip to Albany was a fiasco. We went Tuesday, arriving in Albany about 5 P. M. The next day we went to the Library, and spent the day, returning to the hotel at 4 P. M. Here a telegram arrived with news of trouble at home. We had to leave immediately, without having done very much searching.

I did get into a book on Important people in Ulster County. I had some photocopies made, two of which I am enclosing, for what they are worth. There is no proof of connection with your families, although this is a certainty.

1. Caverly, Luther P.
2. Bloomer, Cornelius D. These two are readable. Another on Caverly is in very poor condition, so I am going to type it out for you.

In addition, I found a few items which might interest you. They are:

1. The baptism of Latin, son of Philip & ----- Caverly, Apr. 20, 1792, in the Newburg Methodist Episcopal Church.
2. Newburg Assessment, and Vicinity: 1 Sept., 1767.
John Cavelder 3 pounds, 5 shillings, 11 3/4 pence
Joseph Bloomer 10 shillings, 2 pence.
3. History of Marlborough, by Woolsey
The first sales in the Lewis Morris patent were to Henry Lane; he sold in 1753 to four men, one of whom was Joseph Caverly, a tract of land of several hundred acres.
4. John and Joseph Bloomer witnessed the will of George Merritt, of Highland Precinct, on 25 January, 1759.

You can be sure that I was very unhappy in the result of my search. However, I shall take a further look next Spring. In the meantime, try to forgive me, and to digest what little I have sent.

Sincerely,

P. O. Box 9.

12 June, 1972.

Route 2, Box 145,
Eutaw, Ala., U. S. A. 35462.

Dear Madam:

I have for answer your letter of 5th inst., relative to some of your ancestors. As this particular type of study has been my hobby for more than forty years, and since I am retired, I have searched my numerous documents and note books. I have come up with a great deal of material, dealing with your families. However, further search is required to make a clear picture. In order to give you a bit of information, I am enclosing a census note of 1851 which supplies the family of Lydia Jane Caverly, the second wife of George Hughson. You will note that there were six, instead of three, girls in the family. This family, as you will note, were of Storrington Township, as you had indicated.

There are several things which should be done, in order to clarify, if possible, certain family connections. When I reviewed the census records of Storrington township I was looking for the items about certain families, such as the Caverlys, who were Loyalists, or Tories, as the Americans say. I was not, at that time, interested in the Hughsons. So I omitted them. However, the census records can be reviewed again. I obtain the film from the Archives in Ottawa, and scan them in my viewer. This can be done within the next month.

The area in Storrington where these families lived is about forty miles from my home. There are three cemeteries in that region. The grave stones there might supply much information. This would take several hours, after driving there.

Another must would be a careful review of the land records in the Registry Office in Kingston, seventeen miles from my home. These records would tell when a family purchased a certain piece of land, when it was sold. There might also be found a will, which would of great value. Photostatic copies can be obtained at a small cost.

There is another source which might be of value. For instance, Joseph Caverly, the grandfather of Lydia Ann, obtained land as a Loyalist, as we term Tories. In order to do so he presented a petition on 2 October, 1810. A copy of this petition can be obtained. It would add information which might be of value to a genealogist, or family historian.

I have found a great deal, which I am withholding for the time being in the expectation that you might wish further search, in order to tie together the uncertain items. In the meantime, I have more than earned the five dollar check.

I await your reply to this letter before doing any further search.

Yours sincerely,

This family had a stock farm near Kingston, Ontario, close to Lake Loughborough because letters mention crossing on the ice in winter to get to Kingston. There is also mention of Inverety and Starrington in the letters. They sold the farm in 1871, went by boat to Buffalo, N. Y. and by train to Missouri. George Hughson was made an American citizen Dec. 30, 1875.

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

Thank you for your interesting letter. We have been entertaining visitors and I could not answer promptly.

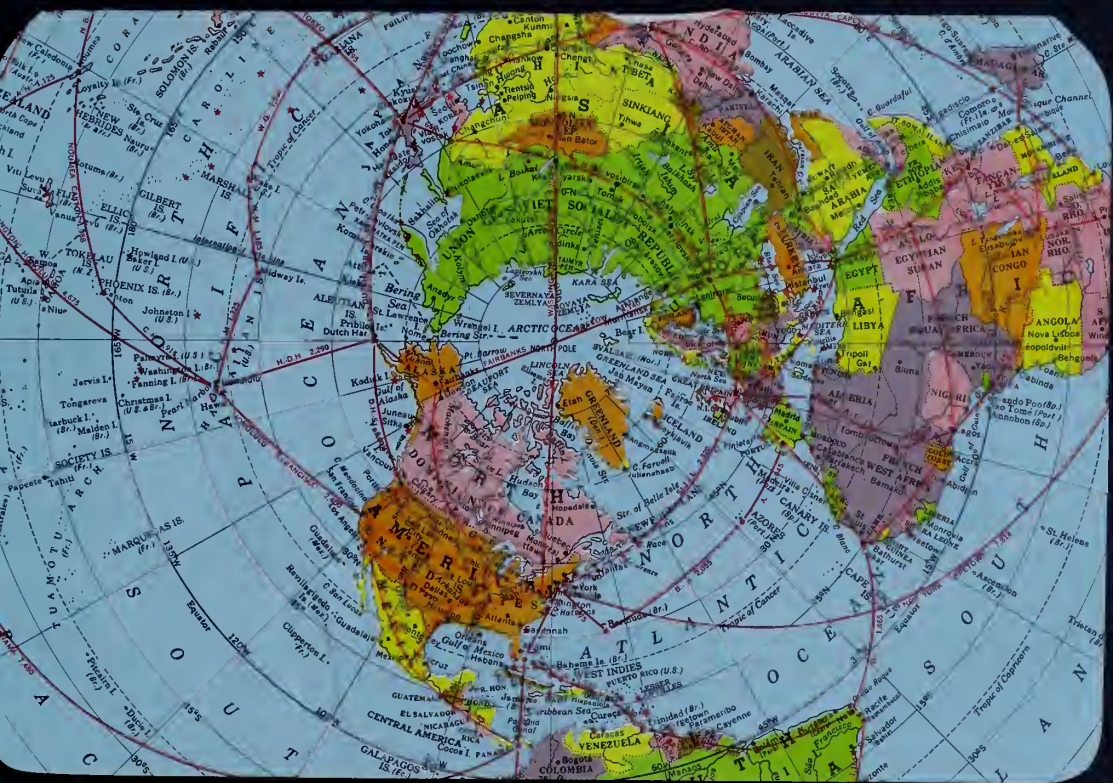

You may find that the Duglessons were Loyalists also, as my cousin mentioned he thought some of them might have been in the colonies. We have no exact records of it.

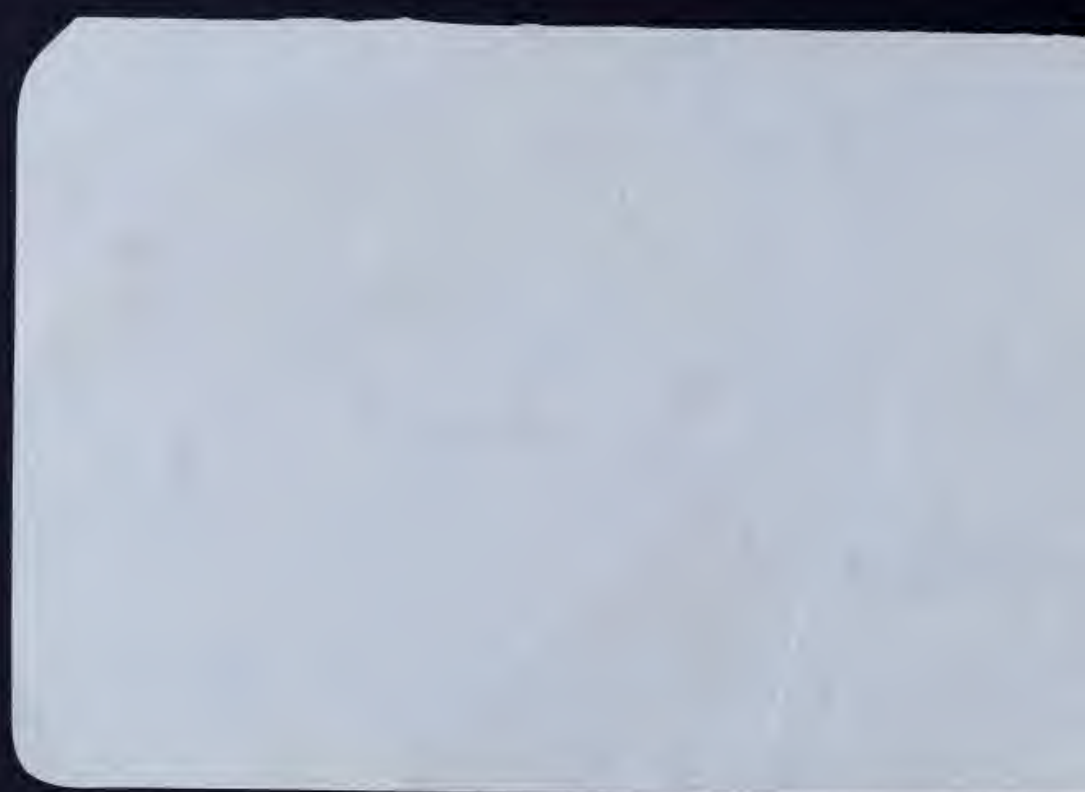

Since you did not mention an amount, I am enclosing $50<sup>00</sup>. I would like copies of wills and other papers you find that would be interesting to us. I would appreciate your recommending any books we might read, that relate to the times and/or area where our ancestors lived.

Sincerely,

Mildred Brodnax

Dear Dr. Burlingh:

I have certainly enjoyed the information you sent. Mrs. Caird has written me a lovely letter which is also quite interesting. Now I know where my Daddy got her red hair! My husband and I have enjoyed reading about the United Empire Loyalists. I found quite a bit of information about them in an encyclopedia and also in a history book. Since my only uncle was named Rob Roy Guild, it will be interesting to know where, in Scotland, the Guilds lived.

My son, who is visiting us now, is sorry he did not have the information several summers ago. He had a summer job, while in college, at Poughkeepsie N. Y. It is just across the river from Marlborough.

Sincerely
Mildred B.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Thank you so much for all the interesting information you have sent me. I read the wills and am curious to know the meaning of "yeoman" as used in them. I realize that it takes time to accumulate this type of information, so I am willing to wait for it. I am sure you will send it when you get it together.

I have had a very nice letter from Mrs. Ellerbeck, who mentioned that her Mother had corresponded with Ada Hughson. Aunt Ada and her family were always close to us and her daughter has helped me get our family information together.

In your letter of August 15th, you mentioned further search in Ulster County, N. Y. I would like to trace the lines to their origin in Europe, if possible. Can you proceed with the search in New York?

Our children seem quite interested in knowing more of their family background. Young people travel so much now, and they would like to visit the areas where their ancestors lived. My niece has lived in Switzerland for over 3 years. My chances of travel are not good at the present time but I am learning a good bit from this search! I just finished a book on the War of 1812. Another question: Who and what were the "Orange Men"? I have not found the explanation, so far.

Sincerely,

Melred B.

Dear Madam:

It would seem that I should forward you some additional dope on the family background. So, I am forwarding you the enclosed. I do not have anything from the Public Archives, as yet, but they are always so slow.

I am enclosing the items found in the Latimer Cemetery. Some of the burials are of collateral branches of your family, and may not mean too much to you. The only ones to mean too much are David Hughson and Catharine Buck, the parents of the George Hughson, who married Lydia Caverly. The Amos Hughson was a brother, or a cousin of George.

I also enclose three wills, which I obtained from the Kingston Registry Office. The two items, dealing with Nathaniel Hughson, I obtained, hoping that they might be of interest to you. The third, being the last will of Richard Horning, mentions Peggy Caverly, as one of his five daughters. This woman is really Margaret, wife of Red Billy Caverly, the mother of Lydia Caverly, the wife of George Hughson, your ancestor. I do hope that you can decipher this will.

I most impatiently await the several petitions which I expect for you from Ottawa. When they arrive, I shall forward them to you. Please, be patient.

Sincerely

Dr. H. C. Burleigh

Canada.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Miss Defoe of the Kingston Public Library has sent me your name in answer to my request for an Historian-Geneologist in your area. I am quite interested in learning more of my ancestors and since my Grandparents were born near Bath, I hope you will be able to help me.

Two of my cousins have been quite helpful and I have put together what information we have been able to find. We would like to know where our ancestors came from and some of the history of their areas. I have written to Edinburgh but they are not able to help me because I do not know the exact area. Of course, it may have been England and not Scotland. The enclosed charts list information taken from a Bible, letters, Newspaper notices and a few notes I once took from Grandfather.

If you are able to do this search for me please let me know your charges. I am enclosing my check for $5.00 as a start.

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I certainly have enjoyed reading the documents you sent. My only question concerns Catherine Beecher. Were there two and if so were they related? Or did one marry John Hornum and then David Hughes?

Cousin Beatrice wrote me such an interesting letter and I do appreciate the information concerning our family. I will write her soon.

I hope you had a pleasant trip and were not inconvenienced by the bad weather.

Sincerely
Mildred B.

Salisbury name was spelled with an S. But my cousin says her father spelled it Salsbury. Christine Guild married a Mr. Walker in New York.

Sincerely,

Mildred Brodnox
